ABOUT US

AN EXCEPTIONAL PLACE ROOTED IN MEDITERRANEAN LANDSCAPES

From Montpellier, just look north: the Pic Saint-Loup stands before you. In this landscape of legends, between garrigue, vines and limestone cliffs, lies Domaine Uma.

The main blocks of vines in the Pic Saint-Loup appellation stretch across north-facing slopes. The vineyard is divided into three terroirs with very distinct geology, to offer wines for every occasion: reds from Syrah, Grenache and Carignan, whites from Rolle, Roussanne, Chardonnay and Sémillon, and fruity rosés.

OUR STORY

AN ESTATE IN CONSTANT EVOLUTION

1800 – 1923	Château de Chambon, at first a simple sheepfold and silkworm nursery, grows during the 19th century.
1924	The Gaffinel family buys the estate and renames it Château de Valcyre. First vines, first wines.
1995 – 2020	The château is split in two, then gradually broken up.
2021	The Clausel family buys both properties and sets about reuniting them: Domaine Uma.
2022	Acquisition of 17 adjoining hectares. First wines labelled Domaine Uma.
2023	Thirteen cuvées in four ranges, a gin, an olive oil, and the delivery of the new winery.

LIGHT, ENERGY, CREATIVITY

The three mantras of the Hindu goddess Uma

Light

Unusual sunshine, just behind the Pic Saint-Loup.

Energy

A living terroir, swinging between hot and cold in a single day.

Creativity

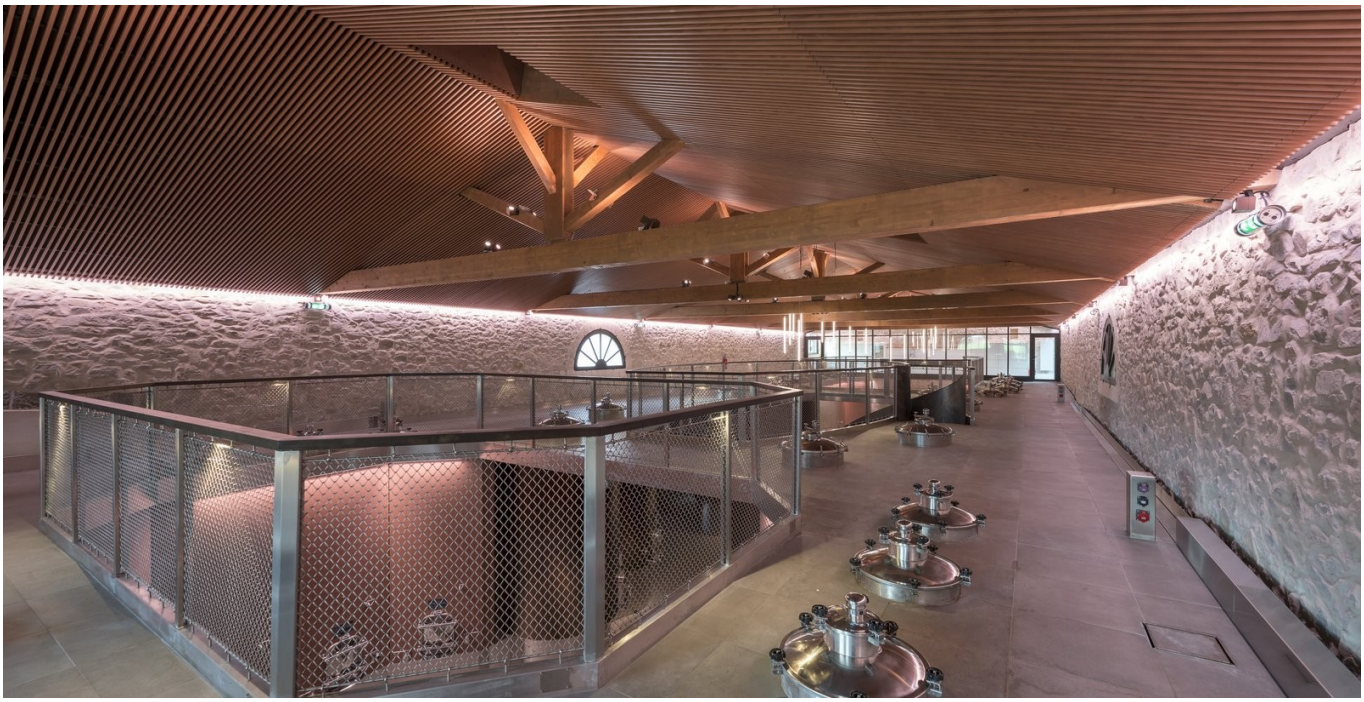

Unexpected grape varieties, bubbles, a red rosé, an orange wine.

THE ESTATE

A PLACE TO WORK AND A DESTINATION

Seminars, board meetings, team buildings and corporate evenings, in a winery designed as a reception venue.

Here, everything follows the rhythm of the seasons. The estate is both a place to work and a destination: the French art of living, with a single tempo, adagio.

The limestone from the neighbouring old quarry is showcased, then balanced by the concrete and stainless steel of the vat room, the timber ceiling cladding and the glass of the two overlooking terraces.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

WHAT WE ARE ASKED MOST OFTEN

Can you host a large group?

The estate welcomes groups of very different sizes, from a board meeting to a gala evening. Tell us the number of guests and we will send a suitable proposal.

Is catering included in the prices?

No, space prices exclude lunch and dinner. We offer meals by Symbiose and Le Petit Jardin at Domaine Uma, with the estate's wines: the menu and price are designed with you.

Can we stay overnight?

The estate has no accommodation. We can recommend places nearby, in Valflaunès and the surrounding area.

What happens in bad weather?

The winery and its covered spaces allow the event to go ahead whatever the weather.

How far ahead should we book?

We recommend contacting us as early as possible, especially for weekends and high season.
